

GARRY ANDERSON

Business Broker and Restaurant Sales Specialist

Garry Anderson is a restaurant professional who has spent over 30 years as an owner/operator of several restaurants in Maryland and Naples, Florida.

Garry holds a BBA degree from Eastern Michigan University, where he achieved many honors including a major marketing award from Ford Motor Company.

Garry is a past president of the chamber of commerce in Maryland, a graduate of a national leadership program, and has been the recipient of many awards for restaurant operations. He has joined the Sage Brokerage Team as a restaurant specialist. He can combine his passion for the restaurant business with a genuine desire to place appropriate buyers and sellers together to match their goals.

Sage business brokerage is one of the few locally owned and operated business brokerage firms focusing on the Local Southwest Florida business brokerage market.

We know how challenging the foodservice business can be, and developing an exit strategy is an integral part of restaurant ownership. Dealing with a seasoned foodservice professional will ensure our clients that we truly understand your needs and challenges.

Sage specializes in confidential matching of buyers and sellers, while utilizing the latest demographic and pricing tools to ensure the highest degree of accuracy in the buying or selling of a foodservice establishment.

Sage will set up a plan of action, and constantly monitor activity levels on the business being sold. This will ensure both buyers and sellers that the price being offered for the business is a fair one for both buyers and sellers.

If you are actively trying to buy or sell a restaurant in Southwest Florida call Garry at Sage today!
